FOUND NOT GUILTY OF SLAYING WIDOW

Gaston B. Means Is Acquitted by Jury After Two Hours of Deliberation.

Prisoner Is Pale but Composed, While Wife Weeps, as He Awaits Verdict.

Cleveland, N. C.—Gaston B. Means was acquitted here of a charge of slaying Mrs. Maude A. King, the wealthy New York and Chicago widow. The jury received the case Saturday night, but after two hours' deliberation, announced a verdict would not be returned until Sunday.

It was a solemn occasion when Judge E. B. Glize entered the day's old court room in the morning soon after 10, in response to a summons from the jury. At 10:05 the defendant, Gaston B. Means, came walking into the court room. His face was pale. By his side was his wife, who bore the signs of a night spent in anxious waiting for the verdict, which might rob her of her husband's protection.

Soon afterward there entered the court room Col. W. G. Means, father of the defendant, Alton Means, his brother, and Miss Belle Means, his sister.

There was great strain on the defendant's side of the court room, for while the defendant himself was composed, his wife was weeping and even members of the counsel were seen with tears streaming down their faces.

"Gentlemen of the jury, have you reached a verdict?" queried the judge.

The foreman hesitated, then he cleared his throat and seemed to stammer.

"Not guilty," finally came the half inaudible reply.

FRANK GOTCH IS DEAD

Retired Matt Champion of the World Expires in Home

Des Moines, Ia.—Frank A. Gotch, retired champion heavyweight wrestler of the world, died at his home, Humboldt, Ia., of uremic poisoning.

Gotch was born April 27, 1876, on a farm three miles south of Humboldt.

Gotch built up a fortune in wrestling and by investing his earnings in Iowa farm lands. His estate is estimated at between $200,000 and $400,000, which represents money made through his ability as a wrestler.

Gotch won the American championship Jan. 27, 1904, from Tom Jenkins after one of the roughest matches ever seen in this country. The bout was staged at Bellingham, Wash.

Gotch won the first fall and was awarded the second after Jenkins had fouled him repeatedly by applying the strangle hold and by striking him.

Four years later Gotch won the undisputed championship of the world by defeating George Hackenschmidt, (the Russian Lion), at the Dexter park pavilion, Chicago, in a forfeited match after two hours of grueling wrestling. There was no fall in the match, but the invader quit, exhausted after the two hours of effort against a man who plainly showed he was superior in every respect.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Heintzelman of Youngstown and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dutler of North Lima were Sunday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Heintzelman.

Mrs. F. W. Fowler of Cleveland, well known in Canfield, fell on an icy pavement and broke one of her arms and dislocated a shoulder. She is now in the Huron Road hospital.

What Germany Teaches

For three years Germany has withstood nearly the whole world. Her ability to stand before her enemies is due greatly to her remarkable economy and thrift. Upon this nation is placed the burden of defeating Germany. Our soldiers are brave, our resources are great, but unless we learn to sacrifice and save as Germany has learned to do we cannot hope to win the war without terrible cost. Do your part of the work by learning the savings habit.

Santa Claus and Others

There is nothing truer than a fairy tale. It is the quintessence of what Aristotle calls the probable impossibility. The best of the fairy tales are folklore, giving the boiled-down wisdom of centuries of experience, and the truths they teach are the old, old facts of human nature put into visible form for childish minds to grasp. These tales do not teach morals by precept, but truths by example, says Collier's. No amount of teaching about the brotherhood of man, and Christmas kindness, and the rewards of virtue, can have such an effect on the small, objective soul as is produced by the vision of Santa Claus with his white beard and twinkly eyes coming with toys for good little boys and switches for bad little boys, shedding jollity and benevolence all over the place. Long years from now, when every incident of these stories is lost to the memory, the knowledge of fundamental human values will remain. Teach the children fairy tales and you teach them the wisdom of the ages.
